Businesses keep up support for Clothe the Kids

KINGMAN - Pioneer Title Agency joined other local businesses to present a check for $1,000 to Kingman Powerhouse Kiwanis Club for its upcoming Clothe the Kids event this December.

Each year, the Kingman branch of Pioneer Title Agency participates in the annual Chamber of Commerce Block Party where sponsors raise funds for the Clothe the Kids event. This year's sponsor team included Fiddler CPA, Cantrell Development, Horizon Community Bank, Kingman Regional Medical Center, Southwest Hospitality, and State Farm Insurance - Deana Nelson.

Kiwanis will use this donation to take children-in-need shopping for necessities such as jackets, socks and shoes.

The Kingman branch takes pride in supporting a variety of local organizations, including the Kiwanis Clothe the Kids as well as the Kingman Cancer Care Unit, Kingman Firefighters Association, Kingman North Little League, Kingman Police Officer's Association, Soroptimist International, Venture Club, Mohave County 4-H, Kingman Boys and Girls Club, and many more.
